

COMMUNITY

TOWN HALL MEETING

HARDIN, MONTANA

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26

TIME: 6:00 PM

Where: Hardin Middle School Auditorium

SPEAKER: STACEY ZINN-BRITTAIN

Stacy Zinn-Brittain is the Resident Agent in Charge (RAC) of Montana for the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA). She currently oversees offices in Billings, Great Falls, and Missoula. RAC Zinn-Brittain has worked in the Middle East, South America, and the southern border. She will provide information related to her job experience in order to give the participants a world view on the manufacturing of drugs, the destination of the monies back to the drug traffickers, and the origin of the chemicals to make the drugs. She will also touch on the different nefarious groups that are actively targeting Montana. The goal is to provide factual information in order to build a foundation of knowledge pertaining to the realities of the drug flow into Montana.

For more information contact:

Big Horn County Prevention

shannon@bighornprevention.com

Supported by the Drug Free Communities Grant

